SIDE PARKING IS APPROVED

STATE HIGHWAY COMMISSION FAVORS THIS SYSTEM

CITY WILL CO-OPERATE

Mayor W. O. Garret Says He Agrees With Views Expressed by B. H. Piepmeier in Communication

The State Highway Commission recommends that parking of automobiles be next to the curbing instead of in the center of the stret, according to a communication received today from B. H. Piepmeier, chief engineer of the commission.

The commission also has complete jurisdiction over all streets that are used as a part of the state system, is the opinion of Mr. Piepmeier referring to the much-discussed problem regarding the parking of automobiles on Main street here.

Mayor W. O. Garrett said this morning that he is in full sympathy with Mr. Piepmeier's views and that the city administration will co-operate in every possible way with the state highway commission regarding parking on the streets that are a part of the state system.

The communication from Mr. Piepmeier to the Democrat-Forum and Tribune is as follows:

June 8, 1925.

Democrat-Forum and Tribune
Maryville,
Missouri.

In reply to your recent communication concerning the parking of vehicles in city streets, wish to advise that, in our judgment, the parking of vehicles in the center of the street should be generally avoided. Our opinion is that the center of the street should be used exclusively for through traffic or traffic that does not wish to park. Most streets have sufficient width to permit parking on both sides. If this is not true, it would be better to permit parking only on one side or to eliminate parking entirely.

Where it is possible to turn the ordinary car in the street between the curb or between vehicles parked at the sides, I would insist upon all complete turns being made within the block and not at intersecting streets. I find a number of the larger cities are urging this practice.

We could not recommend the parking of vehicles in the center of the street until after the space is used adjacent to both curbs and then only when the street is of sufficient width to permit the ready movement of through traffic.

We seriously object to cities posting signs restricting the speed of traffic to ten and twelve miles an hour. This is an impossible speed and one with which motorists cannot comply, hence they are taught to disobey instructions. We much prefer a statement "drive carefully." Some people can drive safer at forty miles an hour than others can at fifteen. We are reaching a time when we should permit traffic to speed up through our streets to prevent congestion. I am of the opinion that we should control pedestrian traffic the same as vehicles. Pedestrians should not be permitted to cross at other than specified intersections. If important intersections are policed and vehicles permitted to pass on certain streets upon definite orders, the same restrictions should be put upon pedestrians.

The law implies that the Commission has complete jurisdiction over all streets that are used as a part of the state system, even though they are not entirely improved with state funds. There may be some question as to our authority in this connection, however, if we are not allowed this authority on any particular street which we are using, we have the privilege of choosing another street or relocating our highway around the city and will do so if we do not get proper cooperation with the various cities through which our roads pass.

In the interest of the traveling public we believe that all streets used in various towns by the State, should be under state regulations, as it is only in this way that uniformity can be secured, and the traveling public properly informed and guided. We are assuming jurisdiction over the streets which are used as a part of our state highway system with respect to the traffic and parking conditions.

We trust that we may have the continued co-operation of your city in this connection.

Yours very truly,
B. H. PIEPMEIER,
Chief Engineer.

Secretary of State Kellogg Issues Warning to Mexican Government—U. S. Desires Stable Government.

Washington, June 12.—The United States today served notice on Mexico that the rights of American citizens in that country must not be violated while efforts are being made by Mexican officials to establish a stable government.

In a formal statement issued following a series of conferences here with James R. Sheffield, United States ambassador to Mexico, Secretary of State Kellogg said this government was desirous of helping to effect stabilization in Mexico but that its support would be extended "only so long as Mexico protects American lives and property and complied with international engagements and international obligations."

EXPECT 1,450 ENROLLMENT

1,220 STUDENTS HAD REGISTERED UP TO MONDAY.

CONTINUES TO INCREASE

College Has Shown Steady Growth During Last Four Years—Decrease This Year Is Explained.

Fourteen hundred and fifty students are expected to attend the summer session of the Northwest Missouri State Teachers College, according to present enrollment figures. At 9:20 o'clock Monday morning, 1,220 students were enrolled. This does not include those registering in the Conservatory, which usually has about 150 students.

It is thought that the enrollment at the College will reach the 1,300 mark before tomorrow night.

The following comparisons show the growth of the studeat body in the summer quarter.

1921	642 students
1922	1042 students
1923	1361 students
1924	1502 students
1925 approximately.	1450 students

At the close of the second day's registration, 1127 students were enrolled. Never before had so many been able to enroll in that length of time. Last year only 918 had enrolled at the end of the second day. The increase was due to the fact that a more rapid system of handling registration was used in the registrar's office. An assistant in the office placed the names on record later, rather than holding ap the line to do it then, as had been done in the past.

WHEAT HERE IS 74 PER CENT

ESTIMATE ON JUNE FIRST BY FARMERS IN NODAWAY.

STATE YIELD 12 BU.

Crops Impaired From Adverse Weather Conditions—Promises Enough Only For Domestic Needs.

The farmers of Nodaway County, in their June 1 estimate of the condition of growing crops, put wheat at 74 per cent of normal; oats at 84 per cent; tame hay 93 per cent; pastures 75 per cent; apples 60 per cent; peaches 33 per cent; pears 39 per cent; home gardens 72 per cent.

A June 1 condition of 76 per cent for Missouri winter wheat forecasts a yield of 12.3 bushels per acre, a total production of 28,438,000 bushels from 2,312,000 acres for harvest, according to a joint statement of the State-Federal Crop Reporting Service. The yield in 1924 was 24,589,000 bushels averaging 12.8 bushels for each of the 1,924,000 acres harvested.

Serious impairment occurred during the month from adverse weather conditions and ravages by insects. Hessian fly damage is more apparent than a month ago, infestation being reported from Bates, Callaway, Carroll, Cole, Cooper, Henry, Hickory, Johnson, Lafayette, Marion, Monteau, Montgomery, Pettis, Pike and St. Charles counties. Chinch bugs attacks are reported from Bates, Henry, Johnson, Marion and Vernon Counties.

The total U. S. production of both winter and spring wheat is given as 661,000,000 bushels, or only about enough for domestic requirements for the next cereal year.

Rye, with a condition of 84 per cent, promises a production of 266,000 bushels or 12.1 bushels per acre from 22,000 acres for harvest. U. S. production this year is 53,300,000 bushels against 63,446,000 bushels harvested last year.

Missouri oats, with a condition of 82 per cent, shows a decline of 9 points over a month ago. The crop deteriorated in all sections of the state and June 1st prospects were for a crop of 43,911,000 bushels on a 12 per cent greater acreage than a year ago with a harvested crop of 41,745,000 bushels. U. S. production this year, with a 4.7 per cent increase in acreage, is forecasted at 1,295,000,000 bushels, as against 1,542,000,000 bushels last year.

The condition of all hays and grasses, as was true of cereals, suffered from insufficient moisture with low temperatures during the month, and the promised excellence of 6 weeks ago has not materialized. The cool weather favored activities of cut worms and army worms, the damage from the former probably never being fully realized. Condition for all tame hay is 76 per cent as compared with 73 per cent last year; timothy 74 per cent compared with 72 per cent; clover 79 per cent compared to 78 per cent; clover and timothy mixed 78 per cent and 75 per cent; alfalfa 88 per cent and 83 per cent; wild hay 90 per cent and 90 per cent; pastures 83 per cent this year and 80 per cent last year. The state acreage of all tame hay this year is given as 99 per cent of the acreage last year.

Missouri fruit and gardens suffered further damage during May from continued low temperatures which finally brought frosts and freezing in some areas. Condition—apples 60 per cent, peaches 47 per cent, pears 48 per cent, blackberries and raspberries 70 per cent, watermelons and cantaloupes 68 per cent and home gardens 82 per cent.

Sixty per cent of the cows are in milk with an average daily flow of practically 21 pounds. Egg production fell off somewhat during the month with 48 per cent of the hens laying.

PUTS BLAME ON OYSTERS

SHEPHERD SCORES TODAY DURING CROSS EXAMINATION.

ROBT. WHITE SHOWS UP

Missing Witness in Sensational Trial Makes His Appearance—Court Room Thrown in Disorder.

Chicago, June 12.—"Billy McClintock died of typhoid fever after eating oysters a short time before the state-wide ban was declared on them to check the growing epidemic, and young McClintock was delirious when Miss Elizabeth Pope, his finance, went to see him with the license for their marriage."

William D. Shepherd, charged with the murder, scored these two points in his defense today in cross-examination of the state's own witnesses.

Chicago, June 12—Robert White, missing witness in the trial of William Darling Shepherd, charged with the murder of William McClintock, today walked into the office of the state's attorney, accompanied by his wife and child.

Chicago, June 12.—The courtroom of Judge Lynch, where Shepherd is being tried, was thrown in a few moments of disorder when it became known that White was back. After being questioned by assistant state's attorneys Joseph Savage and John Sbarbaro, White issued the following statement:

"The story I told before the grand jury is true. I am here to testify for the state. I left Chicago under a threat of death. My original story that I saw Shepherd at the National University of Sciences and that Shepherd inquired concerning a course in bacteriology stands. The statement in the possession of attorneys Stewart and O'Brien, made by me, denying the truth of my grand jury testimony, is false. It was forced from me by Arthur E. Byrnes, Stewart and O'Brien. I have been in Chicago a week."

Engineers Move to Savannah This Week

Three members of the highway department here, that have been connected with the concrete and gravel work on the north and south roads, have been transferred to Savannah. N. N. Ropes, project engineer, and family, and Mr. and Mrs. Ruel Summers have moved there and taken up their residences at Savannah.

Mr. Summers and H. H. Davidson, who have been connected with the department here, are there now doing preliminary work for the Savannah-St. Joseph hardsurfaced road. Summers was material inspector and Davidson was the concrete inspector while located at Maryville.

Mr. Ropes will go to Savannah tomorrow and commence his duties as project engineer on that project of the state work this summer.

E. Warren Gotwals, who has been located here in the highway department for more than a year, will have charge of the finaling work on the paved roads out of Maryville and of the gravel project to Wilcox on route No. 13.

State Scores Big in Arnold Murder Trial

Kansas City Judge Rules That Mrs. Arnold's Original Story Can Be Admitted As Evidence.

Kanass City, June 12.—The state scored today in the murder trial of William H. Arnold, charged with killing Lawrence Hatfield, Pinkerton detective, when Judge Nelson Johnson ruled that statements made to the police by Mrs. Arnold could be submitted as evidence.

The statements, police say, differ from the story Mrs. Arnold, who is also charged with the murder, told on the stand yesterday in her husband's defense. The first story, police say, showed a conspiracy between her and her husband to "get Hatfield."

END COMES TO LABOR LEADER

WARREN S. STONE DIES IN CLEVELAND, OHIO.

PICTURESQUE CAREER

Famous Character In Battles of Organized Labor Starts Out As Railroad Engineer—Organized Banks.

Cleveland, Ohio, June 12.—Warren S. Stone, president of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers and the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers Co-operative National Bank and interested in a number of other labor banks, died here today after a long illness. He was 65 years old.

Death came at 3 o'clock this afternoon and was caused by complication of diseases, principally bladder trouble.

His death closes the career of one of the most picturesque men in American life during the last century.

Starting out in life as an engineer on one of the fast trains, Stone, by sheer pluck and courage, rose to the chiefship of the most powerful group of railroad workers in the world.

A tall, square-shoulders man, with a ooping white mustache, he was the ostle of direct action.

He was trusted in the counsels of the President of the United States. He was the storm petrel in many of organized labor's greatest struggles.

Time after time his organization renewed his fealty to him by re-electing him to the highest office within its gift.

Stone, about three years ago, startled Wall Street with the announcement of the first Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers banks.

Iowa Section Digging Out From Wreckage

Mason City, Ia., June 12.—This section of Iowa was fighting its way back to normalcy this afternoon through a mass of hail-covered wreckage left in the wake of four miniature tornados which swept this section last night.

The town of Alexandria was reported virtually destroyed. Twenty persons were reported injured there. Three were hurt near Chapin where the twister demolished eleven homes. Green escaped the severity of the winds but experienced the most disastrous hail storm in its history. Windows were shattered and wires torn down by the downpour of hail stones that measured fifty inches in thickness in a hollow where they had drifted.

SOME DOLEFUL PREDICTIONS.

When the automobile came it was predicted it would make the horse extinct. Horseflesh costs more than ever and equestrianism continues to grow in favor. Now the oracles say the aeroplane will eliminate both automobile and horse, but like the horse the automobile grows in number and favor. Then saturation point in the automobile industry is always being predicted but never reached. It will be found that horse, automobile and airship each have their purpose and will increase in number as new needs are found for them and the population grows.

From an article in a current magazine are taken a few quotations on the subject of the automobile:

"The automobile stands unique as the most extravagant piece of machinery ever devised for the pleasure of man."

"The people are becoming car-poor as their ancestors became land-poor."

"In this craze for automobile ownership the joy of security in the future is sacrificed for the pleasure of the moment."

"The whole scheme of domestic life centers in the motor car."

"Once the man who borrowed in order to buy a car was looked upon as dangerous."

With some of these statements some will agree, but it is invariably the carless who predict disaster and chaos because so many of their neighbors are on wheels and exchange old cars for new every year.

It is manifest from the popularity of the auto, from the universality of its use and from the jealous tenacity all car-owners cling to their cars, whether palaces on wheels or decrepit derelicts, that there are saitsfactions derived from the automobile which the critics of the automobile-age have not discerned.

FUTURE EDUCATION.

Self-protection is instinctive with man. It also seems natural for man to teach himself how to make a living. Women find no difficulty in learning how to cook and sew and care for their children and men are soon at home with the most intricate mechanism.

But, while these things are instinctive with the masses, few people, if left to their own resources, could educate themselves. With few exceptions, the men and women who are not educated in the schools are never educated and, admitting even fewer exceptions, people end their study with their schooling. So rare are those individuals who continue their studies beyond the school age without tutorage that they are called scholars and are looked upon by the multitudes with a sort of wonder as if they were super-men.

Since it is necessary to serve the people with learning the teacher is highly essential to the progress of civilization. The advantages of education are no longer questioned and since the people demand an education they must have their teachers. As the demand for education grows and as the desire for better instructors grows teachers' salaries will rise and teaching standards will improve. People of this age and of all past ages have found that they must be taught to desire learning. As a rule, Men, women and children find study irksome and laborious.

In some future time a race of men may be evolved that will find the desire for an education as instinctive as man now finds the desire for riches and self-preservation. These superintellects will have no need for teachers as education guides, but will turn naturally to the books and laboratories which are the mines of knowledge. But that time is a long ways off.

The "American Season" is reported open in London but Johnny Bull doesn't want it understood that American money is not good there all the year round.

It is hard to tell whether some of the places along rural highways have been hit by a cyclone or by city picnickers.

Civilization is a great thing but it is the civilized countries that make the trouble for the other civilized countries.

The war brought about remarkable economies in some lines. A British scientist declares that the average man uses only one-half of his brain.

Italy says she is not in a position to take up debt funding which amounts to telling the collector to "call again" or something even more pointed.

It is said that 400 out of every 1,000 Americans weigh too much but these 400 don't cause half as much disturbance as that smaller number whose weight is chiefly in their imagination.

Marvel Dog in Film at Empire Theater

When "Black Lightning" comes to the Empire Theater tonight and tomorrow, local devotees of the biggest and best pictures will find it an exceptionally interesting and thrilling story of love and adventure, and a dog's devotion to his master. The theme of "Black Lightning" is told amid colorful surroundings and staged in a most natural and picturesque manner down in the hills of Kentucky.

The cast, truly an all-star one, has "Thunder"—The Marvel Dog as its star, and Clara Bow, well known to screen lovers, playing the leading feminine role. Miss Bow for the first time in her career will be seen in a role far from the usual flapper, jazzy type to which she is known to thousands of admirers.

The balance of the cast consists of Harold Austin, who will be remembered as the leading juvenile with "Strongheart" in "The Love Master," Eddie Phillips, one of the leading character actors on the screen, Joe Butterworth, James Mason, Mark Fenton and John Prince.

The Farmer Stands His Ground

In the unceasing struggle between the individual and the corporation for industrial supremacy the farmer is one of the few of the former class who are successfully standing their ground. Organized enterprise, the corporation, the modern economic giant, has swallowed up many individual manufacturers and other producers, but the farmer has demonstrated that he is more than its equal.

The idea that the farmer is a slipshod business man is a delusion, W. I. Myers, Professor of Farm Finance of Cornell University, told a group of America's leading business men attending the annual meeting of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States.

"The American farmer," he said, "is the most efficient food producer that the world has ever known. The decrease in the proportion of workers engaged in agriculture from 87 per cent in 1820 to 26 per cent in 1920 is a concrete expression of this efficiency. In spite of this decrease in the proportion of workers engaged in agriculture, American farmers produce enough food and clothing for the nation and a large surplus for export."

This is one reason why the corporation, which has made individual enterprise a practical impossibility in many industrial fields, has never been able to overcome the farmer who is more efficient than the large-scale producer.

Conventions Pay Big Dividends in Advertising Communities

The following is the ninth installment of the article on "Community Advertising," written for the Democrat-Forum and Tribune by D. A. Caldwell, secretary of the Maryville Chamber of Commerce.

Conventions pay dividends that cannot always be measured in monetary terms, which results in their being accepted as one of the cheapest and most effective kind of community advertising. Facilities for the proper handling of visitors are essential if effective means are to be made available for the understanding and co-operation between various sections of the country. The average guest spends at least $5.00 per day. In some communities those who reap the largest reward out of conventions pay from 35-40 per cent of the cost. It is claimed that conventions and travel in this country amounts to one billion dollars anually, and the business is still in its infancy, although it has already become a giant industry.

It is wasteful, and unnecessary, to permit solicitation of advertising for programs, because this is more or less charity.

Every city should welcome conventions because they bring business and afford an opportunity to sell the community. It is a wise policy to discriminate in seeking conventions.

Properly advertised and promoted, a convention is one of the best advertising investments, which any community can make, because it is the focused eyes of business. Today, true publicity is based and developed entirely upon the intelligent application of psychology to the group.

New York, June 12.—(United Press)—New fall coat styles for women indicate that the almost forgotten waistline is about to stage a comeback. Suggested by both the cut of the coat and belts the waistline is vaguely perceptible in nearly all these latest designs.

Among the favorite patterns for fall are the woven edge, Shetland, raging, broken trellis, Mosaic, sunken squares parquet, vignetts and the geometric.

NOTHING creates quite such an atmosphere of elegance in a home as beautiful, mirror-like floors. And for such fine work no varnish surpasses Neptunite Floor Varnish.

Neptunite Floor Varnish produces a clear, lustrous, lasting finish—a finish that enhances the natural beauty of the wood, and stands the scuff and wear to which floors are subjected.

College Students Having a "Real Time" in the Ozarks

George Newman and Floyd Harvey, students of the local College, representatives of the College to the Y. M. C. A. camp at Hollister, have written about the camp there. Their letter is as follows:

Y. M. C. A. Camp
Hollister, Mo.
June 11, 1925.

To the Democrat-Forum:

Hello folks—We are surely having a real time here in the Ozarks. Our camp is situated on the border of lake Toneycomo, and just behind us is "Presbyterian Hill," one of the highest peaks in this part of the country. We do not see the sun from the camp until about seven-thirty in the morning. The camp itself is very beautiful, consisting of a number of cottages located on a grassy plateau. The mountain which makes a beautiful background for this camp, and the lake itself, which is about twenty miles long and averages about a quarter of a mile in width, make a beautiful and inspiring setting for a conference of this kind.

There are about one-hundred-fifty fellows here from Arkansas, Oklahoma, Texas and Missouri, and they are a fine bunch, too. The men who have charge of the camp have been giving us very inspiring messages. They have brought here some of the best known authorities in the United States on student welfare and campus problems.

We wish that all of our friends in the Y. M. C. A., at Maryville could have heard these inspiring messages. We feel, too, that it is well worthwhile for any young man to attend one of these conferences.

We wish to extend our most hearty thanks to the Y. M. C. A., of the College and to those who have made this trip possible for us. And we hope that next year our organization may witness a natural and spiritual growth, and that at the conference next summer Maryville S. T. C., may have a much larger delegation.

Yours sincerely,
George Newman and Floyd Harvey.

Chicago Schools to Explain Darwin Theory

Board of Education Announces Acceptance of Text Books Now On "Black List" In Tennessee.

Chicago, June 12.—(United Press)—While Tennessee is attempting to blot out evolution as a subject for study in the public schools, Chicago has adopted a new set of five text books in which evolution in its most advanced form is explained. The board of education, following the recommendation of a committee of teachers, announced the acceptance of books on biology which are on Tennessee's black list under anti-evolution laws.

The books are:

The Biology of Man and other Organisms—Linville.

Living Things and Elementary Biology—Clement.

Biology and Human Welfare—Peabody and Nunt.

Elements of Biology—Gruenberg.

New Essentials of Biology—Hunter.

Hunter is the author of a text which caused the stir throughout the country when John T. Scopes used it in Tennessee.

Pictures in the books portray man monkeys and horses standing on the hind feet, for the purpose of comparing the skeletons of the three forms of life.

One text explains that man is different from the gorilla only in the size of his brain, and that the development of the brain cell has occupied many years in making humans different from the gorilla which had a common ancestor with man.

Baker Will Rename Hyde Insurance Head

Governor Says Brother of Former Governor Has Been Good Official—Appointment July 1.

Jefferson City, June 12.—Governor Baker announced yesterday he will re-appoint Ben C. Hyde of Kansas City as state superintendent of insurance July 1.

Superintendent Hyde, a brother of former Governor Hyde, was appointed to the office October 1, 1921, by the former governor.

Superintendent Hyde has made an effort to reduce fire insurance rates in Missouri since November, 1922. His order for a 10 per cent reduction in fire rates is being contested by the companies and recently was argued in the supreme court.

Governor Baker said he is reappointing Hyde because he believes he has made a good official and directed the affairs of the department efficiently.

Hyde was one of the principal supporters of Governor Baker in the primary and general election campaigns last year.

The salary of superintendent is $3,000 a year, although there are two subordinate employes in the department who receive larger salaries.

MARRIED 65 YEARS JUNE 6

MR. AND MRS. R. P. NELSON OF BARNARD CELEBRATED.

A CIVIL WAR VETERAN

Mr. Nelson Is Nearing his 90th Birthday While Mrs. Nelson Is 82 Years Old.

(Barnard Bulletin).

It seldom comes to any man or woman to reach the time when they can say that they have spent sixty-five years as companions to each other, but such is the good fortune that has come to Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Nelson, who celebrated their 65th wedding anniversary on Saturday, June 6, 1925. There was no gathering but the day was passed quietly. Mr. Nelson has been in failing health the last year or more, but prior to that time he was in splendid health and vigor and did much work about his place.

Raffail P. Nelson was born August 1, 1836, in Tennessee and is now nearly ninety years old. He came to Missouri in 1856 in an oxen drawn wagon. He and his brother bought 200 acres of land in Nodaway Co., a part of which is now owned by S. P. Curnutt, for $4.50 per acre and began farming. They lived in a tent until they were able to build a cabin. Mr. Nelson retained ownership of the farm he purchased until about twelve years ago, however he lived in town a number of years before disposing of his land.

Mr. Nelson is a Civil War veteran, having fought for the North. He was a strong worker in the M. E. Church south, having been trustee for more than a quarter of a century before the church building was torn down and the church disbanded. He served on tht school board for the long period of thirty years.

Mrs. Nelson was formerly Sarah E. Sharp, daughter of Isaac and Rebecca (Graves) Sharp of Nodaway County and is now 82 years old. Mr. and Mrs. Nelson are the parents of seven children named below in the order of their birth: Mrs. Rena Wilson of Guilford, Mrs. Harriet (S. P.) Curnutt, Belle who died in her youth, Alvin P. Nelson, who now lives near Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, Mrs. Lula (J. M. Broadbent, who is spending the summer at her parents' home, but who lives at Martinsville, Missouri where her husband is superintendent of schools, Ciemma, wife of William Patton of St. Joseph and Ernest R. Nelson who lives just east of Barnard.

Mr. Nelson was reared an orphan, his mother dying when he was small. He had two brothers and two sisters, all of whom have passed on. He has no other relatives as far as he knows.

About twelve years ago, Mr. Nelson called his children together and divided among them $23,500 believing, he said, that they would be able to do more with the money in starting life than in later years.

Mr. Nelson has been a Democrat in politics but has always voted for the best man in local affairs.

Survey The Future

George Washington, as a youth of 16, surveyed tracts of borderland comprising Western Pennsylvania and Ohio. Could he have visioned, as he looked through his transit, the amazing development of this trackless region?

Could John D. Rockefeller, when depositing his first dollar, have foreseen his vast wealth today?

DIFFERENT KINDS OF CHRISTIANS.

Comment on the Uniform International Sunday School Lesson for June 14, 1925.
Read Acts 11.

Wm. Southern Jr.

How many different kinds of Christians are there in the world?

There are more than two hundred denominations of Christians and there is hardly a denomination where there are not divisions among the members and mental reservations. In almost every denomination today there is a bitter quarrel which the newspapers call the fight between the Fundamentalists and the Modernists. Between these two extremse may be found all the rest groping to and fro and wanting to be let alone.

And every denomination and every division in every denomination claims to base that special brand of Christianity on Jesus Christ.

Are these all sincere Christians? They are. They would not fight about what they believed to be right if not sincere. Is there a place they may go and find out what is the right? There is. They all base their religion on the Bible, they all believe the Bible to be the inspired word of God. If they could forget about the interpretations of men and take the Bible for it they would have less difficulty.

A study of the beginnings of the Christian church, such a study as the framers of these International Sunday school lessons have given us, is illuminating. What did the early Christians believe? What did they teach?

The name Christian was first given at Antioch, then the third largest city in the Roman dominions and the first in vice and crime. Antioch was on the banks of the Orontes in Northern Syria. It was in 45 A. D. a city of great luxury and great wickedness, a city of half a million people, a city of wealth and power. It is now a small city of a few thousand mud flats.

Antioch became a great Christian center. After the dispersion of the Christians in Palestine missionaries fled to Antioch and preached "Jesus Christ." Note the answer to a question propounded above, what did they preach. There was no denomination, no creed, no special form of baptism, no tithing, nothing but Jesus Christ and Him crucified.

But there were four kinds of Christians at Antioch. Thus early in the organization had come differences. The first Christians were the Hebraic Jews, inhabitants of Palestine. The second class of Christians were the Greek-speaking Jews who lived outside of Palestine. The third Gentiles who knew all about the Jewish customs who were God-fearing men yet who had not been willing to become Jews before and preliminary to becoming Christians, and the fourth Gentiles who knew nothing about Judaism, care nothing about Judaism and did not propose to accept the Jewish restrictions.

This was the situation in Antioch and in fact everywhere outside of Palestine when the officials of the church in Jerusalem sent Barnabas to Antioch to help organize and instruct the new churches. The Jewish Christians had not yet agreed to accept Gentiles, the vision of Peter to the contrary notwithstanding and in spite of the fact that James the Just stood in open meeting and said he believed it was right that the Gospel, the precious Gospel of Our Lord, should go to whoever would receive it.

I would like to write a whole article about Barnabas. He was one of the finest characters in this wonderful story of the early church. He had given up his wealth, he had accepted the faith unreservedly, he had introduced Paul and vouched for him and he was liked and revered by all factions, for we need not deny it, there were church factions in the early church as now. I like to think that Barnabas and Saul were schoolmates, that they both went to college at the same time at Tarsus and were boyhood friends. The record does not so state, but it is not at all impossible.

Barnabas went to Antioch and was thrilled with what he found. Here were earnest bodies of working Christians in the midst of this wicked city. Here were Jews and Gentiles, Greeks and Romans all responding alike to the story of Jesus as told by the missionaries. Many believe that Peter himself first preached Christianity in Antioch. Barnabas saw that more help was needed if the work was to be carried on properly. He thought about Peter, then about John and James, but shook his head. They were not the men for the job. They were all Hebraic Jews of the strictest type. Then he thought of his friend Paul who had for eight years been preaching to a little church in the country. The very man. To Paul he hastened and Paul returned with him to Antioch and the great work was begun.

It was a wonderful year, that year during which Barnabas and Paul labored in Antioch. Hundreds were converted, churches were organized over the city, Jews, Greeks and Gentiles were all received without question, or rather with one question: "Do you believe in Jesus Christ and Him crucified?" Circumcision was not required. The converts were probably baptized but the record does not emphasize this point. The point is that there was no test, no theology, no creed. These great preachers told as simply as possible the story of Jesus and did not ask a convert about his freedom or his slavery or his race, color or previous condition.

The Lord blessed this work and made Antioch the center from which the new Christian religion went out to all the people. From Antioch began Paul's wonderful missionary journeys. Through Paul we of the United States whose ancesters were uncivilized barbarians, were permitted to know about Jesus and to bring Him to the shores of America and make this the great Christian nation of all the world.

It is an axiom as old as time that responsibility follows education and capacity. I wonder what our responsibility as Christians is today? What does the Lord expect of us, the most favored nation? What shall we do with this Jesus?

As I write these lines the General Assembly of the great Presbyterian church, U. S. A., is preparing for its annual session. All we hear about it is that men are ramping up and down the committee rooms, working church politics to elect a Moderator favorable to their side of the question. And what is the question?

Every member of that assembly believes in Jesus. Every member of that assembly could have joined the church at Antioch without question. Paul would have received them all. The four points of difference, the four kinds of Christians in Antioch have all disappeared.

English churchmen look with wonder at our sudden quarrels. In a few years we, too, will look with wonder at the bitter fight now bringing so much steam from the tea kettle. Our differences will have disappeared just as the differences in the early church over the necessity for Jewish formalities and ritualism disappeared in the new church. Christianity is fundamentally sound and fundamentally liberal.

Boy Kills to Protect Mother

Leonard Meyers, 13, of Harrisonville, Mo., left, shot and killed Harold Beamer, 15, a neighbor boy when the latter threatened to kill Mrs. Meyers. There has been bad feeling between the families for years and when young Beamer appeared at the Beamer home with a rifle, Loretta, right, called her brother, who shot the neighbor boy to death. The killing was justifiable, a coroner's jury decided.

Kidding the Native Sons

California and her climate got well kidded [illegible] Los Angeles. There came a drenching rain one day, and the visiting nobles, attired in bathing suits and fezzes, paraded the main streets singing, "Where's Your Sunshine, California."

Miss Moore did not miss a single word out of 400.

A GROUCH NOT WANTED

There is nothing so harmful to success as being a grouch. Stomach, liver and intestinal troubles make one grouchy. Mayr's Wonderful Remedy will help overcome these and usually gives complete results.

Our advice to everyone troubled in this way, especially when accompanied with bloating in the stomach, is to try this remedy. It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. West Point, N. Y., June 12.—The importance of aviation to the nation's defense was stressed today by Dwight F. Davis declared that in the future army officers must devote considerable time to theoretical and practical training in aviation. The development of aviation is of the utmost importance, Davis said.

Al Smith Says It Is All a "Pipe Dream"

Albany, N. Y., June 12—"I can not be responsible for somebody's pipe dream," constituted the statement by Governor Al Smith, that he would not be a candidate for another term of office. He stated that he had made no plans whatever.

Syracuse, N. Y., June 12—Governor Alfred E. Smith will refuse to run for governor or United States senator and retire from politics at the end of his present term, according to an Albany dispatch published by the Syracuse Herald yesterday.

The Herald says it is understood that the governor has received and will accept an offer of fifty thousand dollars a year from the New York World to write on political and humanitarian topics.

New York., June 12—Florence D. White, vice president of the New York World, asserted "no such arrangement has yet been made," when asked to confirm the Albany report to the Syracuse Herald that Governor Smith would retire from politics at the close of his present term to write for the World.

Jefferson City, Mo., June 10.—B. Hinkle, State Labor Commissioner, is making an effort to reduce unemployment in the State. He stated recently that the bureaus in Kansas City, St. Louis and St. Joseph are co-operating to find jobs for men and women in need of them.

Commissioner Hinkle is an appointee of Gov. Sam Baker and was formerly a well-known railroad conductor.

Jefferson City, Mo., June 10.—Secretary of the State Board of Charities and Corrections, Frank W. Kimball will visit all the state institutions during his stay in Colorado.

Liberty, Mo., June 10.—Harry Silvers, Excelsior Springs bus driver has brought suit here against F. L. (Live) Morse, Republican politician seeking to recover $4001, alleged to have been advanced Morse in the latter's favor for lobbying for the bus control bill and free bridge toll in the state Assembly last winter.

Silvers charges Morse with duplicity and claims he advocated the defeat of the proposition that the State buy the toll bridge over the Missouri River at St. Charles. Morse denied he had accepted money from both sides as Silvers charged.

The bus company which is headed by Silvers is said to pay $1,000 a month tolls over the Missouri Bridge here.

C. C. Corwin, J. F. Colby and S. G. Gillam were business visitors in Sheridan yesterday.

Must Admit that Bee Is Kept Fairly Busy

A bee weighs only 1-300th part of an ounce, so the weight of the load it carries back to its hive must necessarily be small—probably not more than 1-1,250th part of an ounce, or little more than a quarter of the bee's weight.

This means that in order to gather one pound of nectar the bee must make 20,000 journeys out and home. But this is not all profit to the bee. Nectar is only half honey, so that the production of a pound of pure honey requires 40,000 journeys.

What would you reckon an average trip for a bee? A low estimate would certainly give a quarter of a mile each way, or, out and home, half a mile. In that case it is easy to see that a bee must fly 20,000 miles to gather the raw material for a pound of honey. This is equal to 1,250 miles per ounce. Yes, the bee is a great hustler—and, when he has done his job, he gets robbed of all his takings!

An Example of Undaunted Courage

(Barnard Bulletin)

Captain Hugh Frazier, who lives west of Barnard, is perhaps one of the best living examples of undaunted courage we have ever seen. Losing one leg just below the knee several years ago, he went on crutches for several years, doing what he could to help along with the farm work. Illness made necessary another operation in which his other leg was removed just below the knee. Now he walks on leather knee pads, aided with short canes. In addition to this his eyesight is badly impaired and it is with difficulty that he can recognize his friends when he meets them.

But we passed his place a short time ago and found him, even though he is at an advanced age, on his knees swinging a heavy axe and making inroads on a big pile of pole wood. This pile and several other piles have been cut up with buck saw and axe and now he laments that he has nothing to do but to go to the garden and hoe and keep the bugs off the potatoes.

Verily, it is the best example of undaunted courage we have seen in many a day.

It's Just Jack

You're right, for this is none other than Jack Dempsey, pugilistic king, developing his lung power on a mammoth horn in a Paris hotel during the recent sojourn of the Dempseys there. Jack found it tough work to get a sound out of the thing, too, according to those in the know.

EXPECT 1,450 ENROLLEMENT

The slump in the enrollment this year is probably due to three conditions: First, the farmer's condition is just as tight as last year second, teachers' wages are being lowered in some places; and third, there is an over-supply of teachers at the present time.

The attitude of the student body is especially pleasing this summer. Everyone seems to be in an industrious mood and still uses enough judgment to join in Play Day activities and other entertainments. It is hoped that the weather will remain favorable, so that such an excellent group will have the best possible conditions under which to work.

Mrs. Fred Winnell and Mrs. M. P. Gingrich of Wilcox visited in Maryville yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Frankum and family visited in Burlington Junction yesterday.

OBITUARY.

Starling Carmichael was born July 21, 1837 in Greene County, Ind. He was united in marriage to Miss Celia Workman in July, 1856. To this union was born eleven children, six sons and five daughters.

They disposed of their home in Indiana in the spring of 1860 and came to Nodaway County, Mo., where they raised their family. His wife preceded him in death in 1897. He was widely and favorably known in the county for his genial and kind temperament, and his strict attention to his own business affairs.

He was brought out in a precious hope in his Savior long years ago.

He loved the doctrine and practice of the old primitive Baptist. But from some cause never united with the church.

Two sons preceded him in death. Four sons and five daughters, and one brother with a host of friends are left to mourn his death.

Funeral services were held at the Workman Chapel church and his body was laid to rest by the side of his wife, to await the call for the sleeping dead.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Hackett of Burlington Junction were Maryville visitors today.

Closing Grain Review.

Chicago, June 12.—Wheat dropped sharply in today's session on the Chicago Board of Trade. Corn was off fractionally; oats irregular.

Wheat holders, bearishly impressed by general rains over the spring belt and drough stricken sections of the Southwest, hammered wheat prices down sharply by persistent liquidating.

Late corn buying was influenced by reports of lighter domestic shipping and lighter receipts.

Oats were bought by commission houses and leading bulls impressed by the poor crop news.

Provisions advanced with hogs.

Pickering

O. G. Null.

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Reed and son, Ward, returned Monday from Osawatomie, Kan., where they had been visiting relatives for the past ten days. Mr. Reed has recovered from his recent operation sufficiently that he can now work in his barber shop a part of the time.

E. C. Simmons returned last week from Rochester, Minn., where he had been taking medical treatment at the Mayo hospital for some time. He may have to return there for further treatment in about two weeks.

Miss Josie Sadler returned the first of the week from Rochester, Minn., where she underwent an operation about three weeks ago.

Mrs. Lester Ellis of St. Joseph, who was called here last week by the death of her sister-in-law, Mrs. Howard Null, became quite ill last Sunday and has been confined to her bed since that time but is getting along splendidly and expects to be up again by Sunday. She is at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. G. Null.

Mrs. Jas. Buchanan of Osawatomie, Kansas, who was called home by the death of Mrs. Howard Null is spending the week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. G. Null.

Mr. and Mrs. C. G. McMillen returned home this week from Sac City, Ia., where they have been visiting relatives a few days.

W. C. Smith, manager of the Pickering lumber yard is at Easton, Mo., assisting in the semi-annual invoice of the lumber yard and hardware stock at that place which is owned by the Ledeigh and Havens Company of Kansas City, who also own the lumber yard at this place.

Miss Goldie Carmichael, who has been teaching in the Kansas City public schools, came home the first of the week for a short visit at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Carmichael before going to Berkley, Cal., where she will attend the California University this summer.

Glenn McKee, who has been employed by the Wray Hardware Co., for the past three years, has resigned his position with them and with his family left Thursday in their car for a trip throughout the West in search of a location. They will visit relatives in Platte County a few days before starting for Colorado.

John B. Loeh has arranged to handle fresh meats in connection with his produce business and opened up his first shipment of beef Thursday. This will be quite a convenience for the people of this vicinity as fresh meat has not been available since warm weather began.

The Farmers Exchange has made quite an improvement in their building this week by building a fly proof room in which to handle their cream.

On Tuesday nine neighbors of Howard Null came in and helped in plowing fifty acres of corn which was in need of plowing but which Mr. Null had been compelled to neglect on account of the illness and death of his wife the previous week. Those assisting in the work were E. O. Gray, Lowell Gray, W. B. Porter, Johnny Gray, Lorace Gray, Art Wilson, Robt. Gumm, Harry Scott and Carl Burke.

We take this means of expressing the appreciation of Mrs. Null and myself for the sympathy expressed and the many kindnesses shown us by our friends and neighbors in our recent bereavement. Friends, we thank you all for every thought and deed which contributed so much to our comfort in these sad hours.

Dr. and Mrs. J. L. Heller of Topeka, Kan., Mrs. W. W. Glass and son Claude and his family of Denver, Colo., and J. E. McMillen of Loveland Colo., are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. G. McMillen this week.

M. E. Church Notes.

Services Sunday, June 14 as follows: Myrtle Tree—Sunday School at 10 a. m. Preaching at 11 a. m.

Pickering—Sunday School at 10 a. m. At 8 p. m. will be the Children's Day program.

We were glad to see so many out last Sunday and hope to increase the attendance next Sunday.

Come with us we will do thee good.

E. W. CROY, Pastor.

Christian Church.

Because of the funeral last Sunday the Children's Day exercises were postponed until next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. We are hoping for a large attendance at Sunday School. Come and bring along a liberal offering for foreign missions.

Those who failed to hear Dr. Dye last Sunday night, missed a great treat. His message on Africa will not soon be forgotten by those who heard him, while those who are not interested in foreign missions should try an experiment: Cut out of the Bible all missionary literature and see what you have left.

There will be the regular preaching services Sunday night, subject: "Paul's First Missionary Journey." Come, and let's get back to our regular program.

We are sorry to report the illness of several of our membership: Miss Helen Strong, Mrs. Ward Gray, and Milo Torrey. Mrs. Xa Lincoln does not improve very fast.

CLEARMONT.

We are having some splendid rains and warm days and sunshine—just what we've been wanting—so let's not complain if it rains just a little too much or the days are somewhat warm.

Everything moves about the same as usual in and around our town. Nothing exciting only occasionally a rather ugly cloud that looks as though it had some wind or hail in it, as one that touched the west part of town last week. But as no especial harm resulted we all went back into our houses remarking how awful it did look and that it must have been worse somewhere near.

Our strawberries are few and far between and are not of an extra quality; how are yours?

Gardens are great and all who enjoy fresh vegetables now have the opportunity.

The Baptist people served ice cream and cake on the church lawn Saturday night. Cream and cakes were fine. We trust they did well financially.

Mrs. F. S. Brueckner and little son of Pekin, Ill., who has been visiting at the home of her brother, Mr. Billingsley, west of town returned to her home via. Kansas, Monday morning.

The Methodist people have postponed their children's day service from the regular day, June 14th, to the following Sunday. A good program is being prepared.

Children's day program at the Good Hope church next Sunday, June 14th. Go and enjoy a nice program and encourage the children. The offering at these services is used for educational purposes.

The N. C. and P. T. A. school of instruction which was held in the auditorium of the College under the leadership of Miss Frances Hayes, the National field secretary, was a decided success. The leaders present were Mrs. F. O. Cox of Kansas City, state president; Mrs. R. E. Weeks of Kansas City, founder of Mo. N. C. P. T. A.; Mrs. Findley of Graham, president of Maryville district. A large number of local presidents were present and were much interested in the parliamentary lessons given each day by Mrs. Cox and the child welfare classes conducted by Miss Hayes. The wonderful growth of the N. C. P. T. A., is very pleasing. The College faculty and students gave the organization a very cordial welcome and co-operation.

Mrs. L. F. Harman, president of Clearmont N. C. P. T. A., and Mrs. Bert Moore, vice-president were loyally entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Milo Ashford, during the school of instruction, June 3, 4, 5.

Mrs. L. F. Harman left on the 8 a. m. train Monday for an extended visit with her son, Lewis C. Harman and wife of Chillicothe, Mo. Mr. Harman is in the employ of the Producers Cold Storage Plant.

Mrs. Joel Grubb and son of Blanchard, Ia., were Maryville visitors yesterday.

SHENANDOAH TEAM BOOKED

WILL PLAY M. M. B. C. HERE THIS SUNDAY

BEST IN SOUTHWEST IA.

Management is Arranging for a Two-Game Series With an Omaha Team July 4 and 5

Following two unsuccessful Sunday games the Maryville Merchants' Baseball Club is priming for the next game on the schedule, Flag Day, Sunday, June 14.

Work-outs have been frequent and have lasted late in the evenings for the local merchants, with an effort to tighten up the weaknesses on the defensive playing.

Paul Kuchs, president of the M. M. B. C., has scheduled a game with the Shenandoah club for this Sunday, and he reports that Shenandoah has one of the strongest aggregation of ball players in Southwestern Iowa.

The game Sunday will give the M. M. B. C. a chance to even up the count on the games won and lost. Since the season commenced seven games have been played, two of these on week days and the other regular scheduled Sunday affairs. Up to the time of the Hopkins game the locals were ahead on the percentage column, but have fallen back below the .500 mark, losing to Clarinda, Hopkins and the Monarchs, all in a row.

The management is planning for a two-game series here on July 4 and 5, and is now making overtures to book games with an Omaha team for the occasions.

Practically the same line-up will be used Sunday against the Shenandoah nine. The boys are eager to show that they can give their hurler better support than in some of the past games.

The management announces that the prices will be lowered from those charged when the Monarchs were here.

It will be a chance on Sunday to gain a double victory over Shenandoah athletes as the Shenandoah golf team will be here the same day to compete in the tournament at the local golf club.

Shenandoah Golf Team Is Picked for Sunday

The golf team that will represent Shenandoah Country Club at the golf match here Sunday, has been chosen with Henry Reed as captain, according to the Shenandoah Sentinel-World.

The members of the Shenandoah team that will play here are Dr. E. A. Dothage, H. B. Garrison, Gene Vaughn, J. L. Crone, Ben A. Brower and Henry Reed. These men play a sterling game, placing Shenandoah high up in the tournament last year.

The other two teams that will be here for the match are Corning and Red Oak. With the links in good condition and favorable weather on Sunday the predictions are that some mighty good scores will be turned in. Maryville leads the golf association so far this year, and has not lost a single point in any of the matches played to date.

Says "Real Whisky" Nearly Unobtainable

Roy Haynes, Federal Prohibition Commissioner, Surveys His Four Years of Work As Dry Law Leader.

Washington, June 12 (United Press)—Federal Prohibition Commissioner Roy Haynes in closing his fourth year had the following observations:

"Real whiskey, wine, gin or brandy are now practically unobtainable for beverage use.

"Home brewed beer has practically disappeared.

"Moonshine is less general.

"Diversion of industrial alcohol is now substantially less now than formerly.

"Every means provided by law has been used to combat violation."

"The big bootlegger is making his last stand."

"Fraudulent withdrawals of bonded whisky have been stopped completely.

Fines collected for the first three years totalled $12,425,081 Haynes stated.

"Little Orphan Annie" Is Now Title of Song

Comic Strip in Number of Daily Newspapers, Including Democrat-Forum and Tribune

An intense human interest has been created in men and women of all walks of life, from the Atlantic to the Pacific the Gulf to the northern limits of Canada, who are following the experiences of Little Orphan Annie as depicted in Harold Gray's cartoon strip, syndicated through the newspapers of the country, including the Daily Democrat-Forum and Tribune.

Ambrose Wyrick, silver-toned tenor, internationally known in concert and opera circles, received from the sweetness and sincerity of this charming little character, the insipration to write a delightful song which he dedicated to and named "Little Orphan Annie." It is a wonderfully rhythmic waltz ballade, easy to sing and easy to play. So great has been the popular demand for this new song hit that its distribution has already spread throughout the country.

Illinois Employment Lowest in Four Years

Decline Is Continuation of Almost Steady Slump Which Began Two Years Ago, Labor Report Says.

Chicago, June 12.—(United Press)—With industry continuing on the down grade employment in Illinois last month was at the lowest ebb of four years it was announced by the Illinois Department of Labor

The decline was a continuation of an almost steady slump which began two years ago, according to the department's report, which showed that employment in May was seven per cent below the level of May 1924 and 14 per cent below the mark for the same month in 1923.

Since the middle of February approximately 21,000 Illinois workers have joined the list of unemployed. The state showed a one per cent drop in May and a corresponding skid in April.

Discouraging employment conditions were reported particularly from the mines, the furniture industries, the clothing plans and agriculture. The may drought contributed to farm employment slump.

Despite the general trend downward increased forces of workers were reported from the building trades, automobiles and accessories, concerns, canneries, confectioneries, ice and ice cream factories, slaughter houses and tobacco firms.

Conditions varied in different sections of the state.

"Factory workers in Aurora, Danville, Decatur and Peoria, had more to spend in May than in April," said the report, "while those in Chicago, Joliet, Quincy, Rockford, Rock Island and Springfield found less in the May pay envelopes than during the month before."

Ready to Start Savannah Road Work

Paving Contract Is Awarded To List And Weatherly At Kansas City—Start Grading Soon.

(Savannah Reporter).

The paving contractors for the 8.89 miles on the East St. Joseph road are List & Weatherly, 416 Railway Exchange Building, Kansas City, Mo.

Highway Engineer N. R. Sack of St. Joseph had business in Savanah Wednesday and stated that the mules, teams, carts, wagons, graders, mixers and other equipment to go to work shortly after the 15th were unloaded at North St. Joseph.

The engineer for the contract, N. N. Ropes, has moved some of his working material to the northwest room of the basement of the courthouse, and will be moved to Savannah ready to go to work by the 15th.

This road is to be a first class, or primary road, of specified requirement to make it durable and support a large amount of neavy travel. The cost of building is to be a third more than the secondary roads.

At the meeting of the Andrew county court Wednesday the warrants now in the hands of Circuit Clerk J. Harry Latham were ordered paid to the property holders along the East St. Joseph road for the condemnation damages awarded them by the commissioners to assess benefits and damages.

The paving on the east road can not begin until the road is widened by the earth work contractor who has begun two miles south of town and will finish the earth work to St. Joseph.

T. J. Morris & Co. have begun the grading work on Highway No. 27, four miles west of Savannah between the J. P. Havlin and Ed H. Duff farms. It is a stretch of two miles. This company graded the east road and all between Savannah and Oregon and they wish to bid on the Savannah and Bolckow route when the contract is let.

Celebration at Burlington Junction

Plans are Being Made for a Big Time On the 4th at That Town.

(Burlington Junction Post.)

Burlington Junction will hold a big celebration on July 4th. A move started among the business men Monday resulted in a sufficient amount of money being subscribed to insure a first class celebration.

At a meeting held Wednesday afternoon the following committees were appointed to proceed with plans for the celebration:

Amusement—Fred Fleming, J. G. House, Howard Kaufman, W. R. Miller.

Advertising— L. E. Smith, Loren Asbell, L. R. Sims.

Secretary and Treasurer—Charles Ferguson.

Concessions—Clarence Hand, Fred Fleming, W. R. Miller.

Finance—Marion Minter, Lee Yaple.

While plans are yet far from complete, it is the intention of holding the biggest celebration Burlington Junction has ever held. The celebration will be held up town on Main street. There will be good band music and plenty of attractions to make the day one of much enjoyment. The celebration will close with a big display of fireworks at night.

Motored to Lincoln.

I. A. Goodson and daughter, Grace Helen, motored to Lincoln, Sunday and visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Goodson. They returned home Tuesday accompanied by Miss Kathern Goodson, who has completed her second year at the University of Nebraska; and Mrs. Eugene Goodson and daughter, Ruth, who will visit relatives.—Ravenwood Gazette.

European Circus in 'He Who Gets Slapped'

Persons who see "He Who Gets Slapped," Victor Seastrom's Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer production, which is coming to the College on Friday and Saturday nights, will have an opportunity to find out what a European circus is like.

The European tent show is as different from the American variety as can be imagined. The European circus is really a hippodrome. Usually it has a permanent residence and seldom travels. Moreover, it possesses only one ring, and the show is a combination of circus, vaudeville and musical comedy.

The clown, and in the photoplay the story revolves about a clown known as "He Who Gets Slapped," is not merely a pantomimist, but a rapid-fire monologue man such as we have in our vaudeville shows. The best of these clowns are noted for their extemporaneous witticisms. They are also singers and dancers. But it's the good old slap-stick that counts in the end for the laughs.

Former Kaiser Tiring of His Tedious Life

Paris, June 12.—(United Press)—With his wife Hermine having frequent vacations and cures in Germany, Ex-Kaiser Wilhelm is tiring of the tediousness of life in the beautiful though remote Doorn.

He has applied to the Dutch government for permission to while away some time outside of his Doorn retreat and has been granted the privilege of spending a vacation at the famous resort at Noordwyk on the sea.

Hermine at the moment is taking a cure for recurrent rheumatism at Wildbad, Germany.

STORE NO. 235—MARYVILLE, MISSOURI

Were You Ever Told

that this Store is as much a "local store" as any other?

that while it is a unit in the buying power of a great National institution, it loses none of its "localism" on that account?

that it is not only local in fact but is all that, plus a position in the open markets of the country which enables it to give a service to the public that is equalled by no other chain department store organization or any other retail concern?

that if it were not for the fact that it sends its money to one centralized point in order that there a buying department can use the ready cash to eliminate the middlemen's profits by commanding quantity purchase prices from the mills, this Store could not give you the savings it does every day in the year?

If you were never told these facts, ask the Manager of this Store to explain them.
